DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's arguments and amendment, filed on 09/08/2005, with respect to claims 1-32 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claims 3-4, 15-16 and 29-30 had been canceled.

Newly added claims 33-34 have been fully considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-2, 12-14, 24-28 and 33-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by US patent No. 6, 363,065 ("Thornton et al.").

Regarding claims 1, 13, 27 and 33, Thornton et al. teach a method, apparatus and gateway for a Voice over IP (VoIP) telephony gateway by paired use (200 as source and 200' as destination, See Fig. 4) at opposite ends of a data network connection comprising of:

receiving the incoming T1-line (263) Time Division Multiplexed (TDM) telephony serial signal stream (voice traffic) at an originating VoIP gateway (200) (See Fig. 2, Col. 12, lines 42-44), determining within the DSP (225) and the microcontroller (240) whether an appropriate destination IP addresses is serviced over the data network to a destination peer gateway (200', second VOIP gateway) (See Fig. 2, Col. 13, lines 57-62 and Col. 14, lines 3-8), multiplexing the incoming time slot (said voice traffic), via a TDM switch (250) controlled by microcontroller (240), to an outgoing TDM bus (228) at said VOIP gateway (200) (See Fig. 2, Col. 13, lines 52-56), transporting the multiplexed digital telephony serial signal stream (multiplexed voice traffic) to an affirmed destination (responsive to an affirmative ... second VOIP gateway) peer gateway (200', said second VOIP gateway) utilizing suitable IP packets with appropriate IP addresses, converted within the DSP (225) and the microcontroller (240), over the data network (See Fig. 2, Col. 13, lines 56-62), and the processing of RTP header packet (See Col. 22, lines 56-63).

Regarding claims 2, 14 and 28 Thornton et al. further teach that the receiving the incoming T1-line (263) TDM telephony serial signal stream (voice traffic) (See Fig. 2, Col. 12, lines 42-44) at the gatekeepers (420) of an originating VoIP gateway (200) is received within the payload portions of user Datagram Protocol (UDP/Internet Protocol (IP)) packets (See Fig. 4A, Col. 17, lines 34-42).

Regarding claims 3, 15 and 29 Thornton et al. further teach that the outgoing payload information for each time-multiplexed slot is assembled (See Fig. 2, Col. 12, lines 51-57) at the gatekeepers (420) of an originating VoIP gateway (200) within the payload portions of user Datagram Protocol (UDP/Internet Protocol (IP)) packets (See Fig. 4A, Col. 17, lines 34-42) (See Fig. 4A, Col. 17, lines 34-42).

Regarding claims 12, 24 and 26 Thornton et al. further teach the gatekeeper (420) determines whether it can resolve the called number into an IP address of the called gateway (200', said second VOIP gateway) (See Fig. 12, Col. 43, lines 10-15).

Regarding claim 25, Thornton et al. further teach that the gateway (200) is a microcontroller (240 as processor) based system having flash memory (205 as storage device) (See Fig. 2, Col. 11, lines 65-66), which stores program code (instruction) and other information for the gateway (200) operations (See Fig. 2, Col. 15, lines 23-24).

Regarding claim 34, Thornton et al. further teach the processing of RTP header packet (See Col. 22, lines 56-63).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 5-11, 17-23 and 31-32 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims and if no art rejection can be applied.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
